110. It denies the allegations of paragraph 110 of the complaint.

111. It denies the allegations of paragraph 111 of the complaint.

112. Trails Carolina denies each and every allegation of the complaint not hereinabove specifically admitted, explained or modified.

FOR A SECOND DEFENSE AS TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

113. Trails Carolina incorporates herein the allegations contained in its first defense, not inconsistent with this defense.

114. It alleges that the plaintiffs' complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted and should be dismissed pursuant to the provisions of Rule 12(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

FOR A THIRD DEFENSE AS TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

115. Trails Carolina incorporates herein the allegations contained in its first defense, not inconsistent with this defense

116. It alleges that even if it was negligent, grossly negligent, reckless, and/or willful and wanton in any respect, which is expressly denied and admitted solely for the purpose of this defense and no others, it is not liable to the plaintiffs for the alleged resulting damages, if any, because of the intervening negligent, grossly negligent, reckless, willful and wanton, unlawful, and/or criminal actions on the part of third parties, which negligent, grossly negligent, reckless, willful and wanton, unlawful, and/or criminal actions on their part were not reasonably foreseeable and which intervened and acted as the direct and proximate cause of the damages and/or injuries, if any, allegedly sustained by the plaintiffs.

FOR A FOURTH DEFENSE AS TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

117. Trails Carolina incorporates herein the allegations contained in its first defense, not inconsistent with this defense.

118. It alleges that the damages of the plaintiffs, if any, were the direct and proximate result of the negligent, reckless, and willful conduct of June Doe and/or plaintiffs, which combined and concurred with any negligence or recklessness on the part of this defendant which is specifically denied and admitted solely for the purpose of this defense and no other, and the alleged damages of the plaintiffs would not have occurred if June Doe and/or plaintiffs had not been guilty of such negligence and recklessness. Therefore, the plaintiffs' complaint is barred to the extent that June Doe's and/or plaintiffs' contributory negligence and recklessness is more than fifty (50%) percent of the negligence and recklessness in this action. The plaintiffs' recovery should be reduced by the percentage of June Doe's negligence to the extent that such negligence and recklessness is fifty (50%) percent or less of the total negligence and recklessness in this action.

FOR A FIFTH DEFENSE AS TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

119. Trails Carolina incorporates herein the allegations contained in its first defense, not inconsistent with this defense.

120. It alleges that while it was not negligent in any respect, nevertheless, plaintiffs, by the exercise of ordinary care, could have avoided the consequences of any negligence of which plaintiffs charge this defendant, and, therefore, the plaintiffs are not entitled to recover in this case.

FOR A SIXTH DEFENSE AS TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

121. Trails Carolina incorporates herein the allegations contained in its first defense, not inconsistent with this defense.

122. It alleges that to the extent that the plaintiffs have failed to mitigate their damages in the manner required by law, such failure to mitigate is pled as a bar to plaintiffs' claim, and any amount awarded to plaintiffs should be reduced or diminished by the amount plaintiffs could have reasonably avoided.

FOR A SEVENTH DEFENSE AS TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

123. Trails Carolina incorporates herein the allegations contained in its first defense, not inconsistent with this defense.

124. It alleges that, if the plaintiffs were injured as a result of the alleged incident, such injuries were caused by the plaintiffs' common law and contractual assumption of the risk and, therefore, this defendant is not liable to the plaintiffs herein.

FOR AN EIGHTH DEFENSE AS TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

125. Trails Carolina incorporates herein the allegations contained in its first defense, not inconsistent with this defense.

126. It alleges that this Court lacks jurisdiction, both personal and subject matter, over this action. As such, the plaintiffs' claims should be dismissed.

FOR A NINTH DEFENSE AS TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

127. Trails Carolina incorporates herein the allegations contained in its first defense, not inconsistent with this defense.

128. It alleges that venue is improper in this matter and it should thus be dismissed or, alternatively, transferred to the appropriate venue.

FOR A TENTH DEFENSE AS TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

129. Trails Carolina incorporates herein the allegations contained in its first defense, not inconsistent with this defense.

130. It alleges that to the extent this action is governed by the operation of South Carolina Code § 15-36-100 or N.C.G.S.A. § 90-21.11 and NCRCP 9(J), the plaintiffs have failed to comply with these statutes. As such, their claims are barred and the complaint should be dismissed.

FOR AN ELEVENTH DEFENSE AS TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

131. Trails Carolina incorporates herein the allegations contained in its first defense, not inconsistent with this defense.

132. It alleges that the relationship between it and the plaintiffs and the duties and responsibilities of each are governed by an enrollment agreement entered into by and between the plaintiffs and Trails Carolina. It further alleges that, under the terms of that agreement, the plaintiffs agreed, among other things, to assume all risks, not to sue and release, hold harmless and indemnify Trails Carolina from any actions including actions based on negligence, carelessness or any other cause under theories of either contract or tort law. The agreement also provides that the plaintiffs agreed to waive and release any and all rights which they may have for any claims for damages for personal injury.

133. Trails Carolina pleads the terms of this agreement including, but not limited to, the terms of paragraph 7 of the enrollment agreement as a complete defense and bar to the plaintiffs' claims.

FOR A TWELFTH DEFENSE AS TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

134. Trails Carolina incorporates herein the allegations contained in its first defense, not inconsistent with this defense.

135. It alleges that insofar as the plaintiffs' complaint seeks punitive damages, such damages are violative of both the United States and South Carolina Constitutions.

FOR A THIRTEENTH DEFENSE AS TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

136. Trails Carolina incorporates herein the allegations contained in its first defense, not inconsistent with this defense.

137. It alleges that the relationship between it and the plaintiffs and the duties and responsibilities of each are governed by the enrollment agreement entered into by and between the plaintiffs and Trails Carolina. It further alleges that, under the terms of the agreement, the plaintiffs agreed, among other things, to resolve disputes between the plaintiffs and Trails Carolina arising out of that agreement through arbitration by an American Arbitration Association approved arbitration service in the State of North Carolina.

138. Trails Carolina pleads that the terms of this agreement including, but not limited to, the terms of paragraph 25 of the enrollment agreement are a complete defense and bar to the plaintiff's claims.

WHEREFORE, having fully answered the complaint, the defendant, Trails Carolina, LLC, prays that it be dismissed, with costs, and for such any and other further relief as this Court shall deem just and proper.
